OTTAWA, Jan. 16.—The labor conferences with the government continue tomorrow. All through the day and to the evening, labor problems were discussed and tentative suggestions were taken into consideration. As the session stood at the close, the representatives of organized labor and the provincial representatives called to discuss the farm labor shortage had placed in possession of the facts, and the government intimated that any suggestions for meeting the difficulty would be welcomed. It was emphasized by members of the war cabinet at the opening proceedings that the government had not as yet announced any definite policy, but, as, so to speak, taking labor in "on a ground floor." Before determining any policy, the government was seeking first the views of the labor men and their advice.

The labor men were welcomed in the morning by the prime minister and members of the war cabinet, and, after learning the position as outlined by members of the government, expressed the view that they would like to be represented on the executive of the Trades Union Congress. The Trades Union Congress Labor Council to suggest names and to those suggested invitations to be present were sent.

country at war had labor made a greater contribution than in Canada. He said that there had been as little and probably less industrial unrest in Canada than in any belligerent country. He made a confidential ment regarding the military situation as it stood at present, and of the agency of Canada putting her whole energy into the war. He stated that was the government's desire to secure the hearty co-operation of organized labor in carrying out the plans which the government would have to opt to meet the situation. The inference had been called, he said, take labor men into the confidence the government in regard to the litary situation. He asked labor men for any suggestions they might

It was essential that large quantities of rails should be renewed this year. The necessary labor for this purpose would have to be secured.

Ultimatum Sent Jassy From Lenine

Release of Russians and Punishment of Officials is Demanded—Roumanian Minister Released After Being Jailed by Bolsheviks at Petrograd.

Petrograd, Jan. 10.—The council of national commissioners yesterday sent an ultimatum to Roumania demanding the release of the Bolsheviks arrested recently in that country, the punishment of officials who ordered the disarming of Russian troops, and a guarantee for the future. A reply was demanded within 24 hours, failing which the ultimatum says, extreme measures will be taken.

London, Jan. 10.—M. Diamandi, the Roumanian minister, and the other members of his staff, were set free by the Bolshevik government Tuesday afternoon, according to a Reuters dispatch from Petrograd.

Petrograd, Jan. 16.—The release of M. Diamandi, the Roumanian minister, was the result of an order given by telephone by Premier Lenin to the commander of the fortress in which the minister and his staff were confined. Previously a futile attempt was made to arrest the release of Diamandi, but the ultimatum signed a document pledging his efforts to procure the release of the Bolsheviks, and the return of the Roumanian army. This incident occurred in connection with the release in Roumania of the

Washing Won't Rid Head of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to slough it off, then destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid soap, apply it at night when retiring, leave enough to moisten the scalp and rub it gently with the finger tips. Do this tonight. The next morning use all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and destroy every dandruff scale and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you have. You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will be gone, and your hair will be softer, smoother, glossier, and will grow and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid soap at any drug store. It is a very inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

The Western men asked the abolition of private employment agencies and the establishment of government labor exchanges. They also spoke of the necessity of having a plan for essential industries. Hon. Mr. Mulvihill remarked that such a plan would require at least 10,000 men, and could probably utilize two or three times that number. At all costs, he said, sufficient farm labor should be provided for spring seeding.

EDITED BY MISS MARION REYNOLDS

PERSONALS, MEETINGS, CLUB ACTIVITIES, WEDDINGS AND SOCIAL EVENTS

GOD governs in the affairs of men; and without His aid no man can prosper. The wisdom of this is a lesson to all.

—Benjamin Franklin.

What has been received of the death of James J. O'Brien, of 312 D. St. O'Brien, who was formerly assistant pastor of the First Baptist church, died at his home, 312 D. St., of pneumonia, was the cause of death.

Mrs. Stirling Martin, 33rd street, will be a tea hostess on Thursday.

Miss Annie Jackson is moving to about two weeks from 33rd street to the Condon hill.

Mrs. J. Paterson's daughter, Mrs. Benson, who underwent an operation recently, is sufficiently recovered to be about, and returned to her home in St. John on Wednesday morning.

Mrs. J. Paterson, who has been in the hospital for some time, is now convalescing at her home, 10th avenue.

Mrs. Joseph's sister, who is holding out for a divorce, is now at the hospital, at 8 o'clock in the morning.

Miss Jessie Huchell is leaving for California the end of the week.

Mrs. Geo. McKernan will be a tea hostess on Friday.

Mrs. and Miss J. Dalton, who are well known in Edmonton, are in Montreal and are at present guests at the Macdonald.

Mrs. Watson and Mrs. F. Wm. Leslie are having a reception at the home of the Social Service work on Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock. The women of the city interested are invited to attend and meet them. The program is being arranged with the assistance of Miss Leslie, who will sing and Mrs. Watson will read.

Thursday will be the last day of the series of luncheon which have been so popular, and to thoroughly appreciate what the luncheon has been doing it will be well to attend to see the place of the luncheon in the community. Those who have already attended have been very kind in every way.

The second of the series of luncheon given under the auspices of the Consumers' league on Wednesday was as successful as the first, and drew a large crowd of patrons. The luncheon was held at the home of Mrs. J. Dalton, who was very kind in the best of all questions of the luncheon. The luncheon, and matters arising therefrom, were discussed in a pleasant and helpful manner. The luncheon was held at the home of Mrs. J. Just Able to Crawl about

Mrs. Wilton T. Hawkes, Currieville, N.B. writes: "Last spring I was taken very ill with a severe cold, and it started with a chill. I was sick four weeks, and was unable to do anything. People all said I had inflammation of the lungs, and that I would never get well. I told a friend to get me two bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and before the first one was taken my cold and cough were broken, and the second did its work completely. I am raising a family of four, and that it is a good medicine for the children."

There is no remedy that will cure stubborn colds or coughs, the kind that won't get you, like Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It always inflammation, soothes the irritation, breaks the greatest mucus, and the fine system completely of the bad effects of bronchitis, colds and coughs.

There are so many spurious "pine" preparations on the market that you should see you get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it.

The Daily Poem

THE OLD HOME NEST

Oh, you may travel far and wide,
Aye, far and wide over land and sea,
And thank your stars you are not lost,
Like "poor old-fashioned, plodding" me.

But there will come a time when you
With longing heart will think of home
(Ah, roadway and rose and rue)
And you will never more will roam.

Old friends are best,
And there is no one else,
Like the old home nest.

How the seas—what magic lies
Beyond the hills—what stories
How the distant clock
The far-away, how very fair!

And deeply drink the wine of life
(Ah, not now, soon, with pleasure pull)
Then old friends are nearest.

And there's no place, dearest,
Like the old home nest.

Is It Safe?

Representatives of the cities have been asking the Provincial Government to create some machinery whereby municipalities which have borrowed money to build their bondholders—or take some action which would be considered equivalent to consoling them when they were to suffer an obligation or to alter the terms and conditions on which the loan was made. There is no doubt that it would be very difficult if under present conditions the cities of the Province could make arrangements with their bondholders—or with some authority guaranteeing the interests of those bondholders—to go to the debt payments while the cities find it very difficult, and may find it impossible, to meet. But there is an element of danger which should not be lost sight of in providing machinery for the revision of the terms of a loan. It is the possibility of the party making the loan. The knowledge that such machinery would be available to the party making the loan, the knowledge that such obligation could be postponed if a hard-luck story were put up to the authority having power to revise the terms. It is not desirable in this country to do anything that tends to lessen public recognition that a debt is something that has to be paid, and paid when it is due.

Discredited Spokesmen.

One reason why peace terms suggested by Berlin do not seem to be in the cards is just because they come from Berlin. The German capital having made itself the centre of a worldwide system of intrigue and deception, anything that comes from there will be accepted at face value. The German government's policy has been changed. When the German people desire to protect their peace they should first have to displace the leaders whose purposes were disclosed in the operations of von Bernstorff and his associates. Only when some parties whose language may be supposed to express the purpose they have in mind.

War Work or Profit?

Two despatches from Ottawa published on Wednesday should be read in conjunction. One announced the assembling of the cabinet on Wednesday morning by the Ministers of Agriculture and Colonization on the question of farm labor. The other announced that the steel manufacturers had just completed a conference with the Government on the question of steel production. The steel manufacturers were quoted as saying that unless 25,000 men would be idle in the winter for lack of men to sow the seed and reap the crop. Delegates to the conference were quoted as saying that plans had been made to increase the output of steel this year by 20 per cent. and to supply the demands of munition supply and the demands of munition supply. A Case for Compromise.

The cities of the Province are asking for a change in the law to impose on motor vehicles. This appears to be a case for compromise between the Province and city authorities on a basis of fairness and recognition of the rights and interests of both. As city authorities use the country roads, they have the right to be recognized. The Province contributes it is fair to argue that the Province should share in the benefit of provincial expenditures. On the other hand, the cities must have their streets without any help from the province, and farm vehicles used for the purpose of contributing to the cost of upkeep. It would seem reasonable to set one fact against the other. The Province has the right to be recognized. Special Instructions Contrary to Law.

As the several election counts in Alberta are being made, more and more evidence comes to light of the method by which the count is made. The Government candidates. In the Bow River riding there were enclosed in some of the ballot boxes instructions to the deputy returning officers, of which the following is a paragraph:

By order from the general returning officer I am to advise you that naturalization can only be proved by production of the name learned in the referendum before advised, that neither oath of person affected, nor presence of his name on the voter's list will be proof of his right or naturalization for purposes of Section 62 or otherwise.

While this instruction is somewhat ambiguous, if carefully read by those who are learned in the law, it is not to be doubted that it was accepted—and was intended to be accepted—by the deputy returning officers. The instruction to refuse a ballot to any naturalized citizen who did not come from the Bow River riding is a clear violation of the law. It is not desirable in this country to do anything that tends to lessen public recognition that a debt is something that has to be paid, and paid when it is due.

Doublet Proposal.

The suggestion was made at the recent conference that a general election be held in the cities of the Province. If city taxes are not paid within six months after falling due, the city should be placed in the hands of the owner having one year in which to redeem it. Apparently the intention is to see that this act should be applied only to the future. Even so, the proposed measure is a doublet. There are times when a taxpayer is unable to pay his taxes when due through unavoidable causes. It is not desirable in this country to do anything that tends to lessen public recognition that a debt is something that has to be paid, and paid when it is due.

Treachery to Friends As a Price of Peace.

The outrageous character of the proposal to allow the principle of "self determination" to the savages of Africa and New Guinea in the proposed peace terms is so obvious that it is almost unnecessary to point it out. The government's peace agencies in Britain and Canada. The first announcement was made by Premier Lloyd George a few days ago and now the British labor party would confirm the proposal.
